

WOODSTOCK PUBLIC LIBRARY

SUMMER 2007 Programs

MISSION READ:

To the Library and

BEYOND

We invite readers of all ages and their families to explore new spaces and places during the 2007 Summer Reading Program, Mission Read. Summer Reading Club registration begins on Tuesday, June 5 in the library's Mission Control.

Summer Reading Club participants are the real stars and they can earn moon money by reading or listening to books. The moon money can be used for admission to the Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon programs, Shooting Stars Storytimes, or to purchase prizes at the Space Place Canteen. All children keep track of their reading by writing titles of the library books they have read in their Reading Log which is kept at the Children's Desk. Moon money: earn one coin for every 6 picture books or 3 "J" books.

A Galaxy of Fun – Family Programs

Summer Reading Club members and their families can just drop in for these programs. Children must be age 3 or older and accompanied by an adult family member. Admission is free.
